

Rule 12
FINES AND COSTS

(A) The clerk of court accepts payment of fines and costs. Court costs in a criminal case will be $79.00 at minimum, and may include cost of subpoenas issued, and jury costs. Court costs in a traffic case will be $54.00 at a minimum, plus an additional $34.00 for any moving violation conviction. A $15.00 fee shall be assessed for each bench warrant issued. The clerk shall add any other costs required by law.

(B) Failure to pay fine and costs when due may subject a defendant to sanctions of the court, including findings of contempt and/or to referral to the authorized collection bureau with additional fees. Installment payments will be accepted by the clerk without a judge's order before the date the payment is due.
